Option 1: Hands-on Workshop at School (2 hours)

Session Outline:

These sessions look at how seaside holidays are different from the past, including how holiday makers got to the seaside and what they did once they were there. All sessions involve an object-based approach to exploring these themes.

Learning Outcomes:

- Understanding of how holidays in the past were different to today.
- Through looking at bathing costumes appreciate how attitudes to clothing and fashion have changed.
- Learning different seaside activities and how some are similar and other different to today.

Cancellation:

- If you cancel your session with less than 5 days notice a 50% charge will be made
- If you cancel your session with less than 48 hours notice the full charge will be made
- Adverse weather conditions– we aim to always deliver sessions whatever the weather. If there is the chance your school may close due to adverse weather please contact us as soon as possible. If we are notified in advance of cancellation due to adverse weather no charge will be made.
- We have a team of session leaders, should they be ill on the day of your session we will do our utmost to find a replacement so as not to inconvenience you.

General Information:

- A teacher is required to stay with the group throughout the whole session.
- Please note the ratio of 1 to 12 children
- Children do not need any equipment such as pencils.
- Children will be split into 5 groups when doing the activities.
- Your session leader will have a CRB clearance.
- Please also look at the workshop outline attached.

We aim to deliver the highest standard possible and hope you will book with us again. If you are unhappy with any aspect of the service you receive from our education service please contact the manager, Emma Warren, to discuss on 01932 565764.
